THE FIRST NAME IN CUSTOM INSTALLATION®

Niles Audio Named to Nation's Top Businesses List

Leading custom electronics provider recognized as one of the US' top privately owned companies by DiversityBusiness.com

MIAMI, Fla. – June 24, 2009 – Niles Audio Corporation, The First Name in Custom Installation®, was recently named one of the “Nation’s Top Businesses” by DiversityBusiness.com, a leading business-to-business Internet site. Recognized for its success as one of the leading privately owned companies in the U.S., Niles Audio earned a spot on the ninth annual “Top Business List” based on annual sales performance and business practices. Niles was officially honored at a special awards ceremony at DiversityBusiness.com’s “Ninth Annual Multicultural Business Conference”, held April 29-May 1, 2009 in Orlando, Fla.

“For over 31 years Niles has prided itself on being a business that treats its customers, employees and partners with unparalleled respect; encouraging teamwork, innovation and a commitment to being the absolute best in the industry,” said Frank Sterns, president of Niles Audio. “We are truly honored to have our company recognized on such a distinguished list of top businesses.”

“Niles Audio has always been guided by a mission to constantly develop and market new, application-specific products that enable professional systems integrators to design and install systems that delight their customers,” Sterns added. “Beyond our award-winning product offering, Niles also provides comprehensive solutions that help our dealers and installers successfully grow and manage their businesses.”

Since the company’s inception in 1978, Niles has been a solutions-based company and has pioneered virtually every product category that makes the custom installation business what it is today. The team at Niles Audio works diligently to create new, cutting-edge products and customer support programs that continue to define the audio/video industry. The Niles line of more than 500 individual products includes all the essential tools of the trade—a comprehensive array of devices for every aspect of whole-house distribution and integration of audio/video systems, including speakers, receivers, amplifiers, automation devices, controls and accessories.

Beyond the products themselves, the Niles equation encompasses comprehensive enterprise solutions to help its clients manage and grow their businesses. Extensive training, technical support, marketing and promotional resources also set Niles apart as a “total solutions” company, leading the industry today and helping to define its future. Niles’ passion for innovative products and the people who use them has led to the company’s 31 years of success and continues to drive its vision.

DiversityBusiness.com’s “Top Business List” is an honor that goes to the leading privately owned companies in the U.S., in sectors such as technology, manufacturing, food service and professional services. The list is produced annually by DiversityBusiness.com, the nation's leading multicultural business-to-business Internet portal that links large organizational buyers to multicultural product and service suppliers.
